5. Old Business

5.1 Forests Ontario - Update

Anita has added the nine red maple trees that were planted at the water front to Ontario's Green Leaf Challenge webpage. You can now go to the webpage and see how many and what species of trees have been planted.

The history of the old growth white pine at the waterfront will be written up in the fall for the Machin Messenger and Machin website.

6. New Business

6.1 Work Party Date

Lloyd will make arrangements with the Public Works crew to have the posts for the handrail set up. Once a date for the posts has been set Lloyd will contact Committee members to complete the handrail. Sidewalk patio blocks will probably be used on the ramp to help make walking up to the trail from the road easier.

At Nick's Lookout the back of the bench can be completely removed, Lloyd will take it home to set in the plaque for Nick. The Committee will also pick up two other plaques to be put on two new benches that Lloyd has already constructed.

Judy informed the Committee that the White Pine Trail requires some trimming.

Lloyd thanked Judy and Dennis MacKenzie for all the extra work they do on the trails aside from our work parties.

7. Next Meeting Date

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, August 15th, 2017, 10:30 am at Fort Vermilion.

8. Adjourn: The meeting adjourned at 2:05 p.m.
